

. Push button DALI control panel DVL0542-AC2422K4-DIM-G2 is a single color DALI controller, that controls 2 group addresses. The group of devices on DALI circuit to be controlled can be assigned manually by rotary switch on the back. The panel through broadcast can control all DALI devices on the circuit. The DALI panel enables to switch on/off and dimming. This commands to be sent to the selected group. It is easy to use and no configuration by computer required. Compatible with existing standard size frames from Berker, Merten, Gira, the DALI push button controller can be wall mounted easily.

Key Features

- Single color push button DALI control panel
- 4 Button design with group control
- address group 2 Control
- Control of all DALI devices on the circuit through broadcast
- Enable to set start group number manually by rotary switch on the back
- Easy to use, no configuration by computer required
- Compatible with universal DALI masters
- Easy installation, compatible with existing standard size frames